INFORMATIONAL

Background Information:

Technical Eats, the CATEC food bus, has been a collaborative effort by both staff and students. The project will be explained in detail and the following individuals will be recognized for their contributions:

- Shannon Tomlin, Project Manager
- Sid Trimmer, Building Trades instructor
- Ron Moore, Auto Body instructor
- Patrick Maranuk, Culinary Arts instructor
- Tom Goss, Culinary Arts instructor
- Jim Charbonnet, Auto Tech instructor

Recommendation:

The Director recommends that the Board commend these individuals for their contributions to this accomplishment.

JOINT BOARD

Charlottesville-Albemarle Technical Education Center

Topic: CTE School to Work Signing Event

Date: May 15, 2018
Enclosure:

INFORMATIONAL

Background Information:

The Signing Event is a celebration and recognition of students, parents, and the employers who have all committed to make these “school-to-work” partnerships possible through youth apprenticeships and internships. These partnerships bridge school and industry to give students the most current and relevant education and workplace experiences possible. This first annual event is a way of recognizing CATEC CTE students’ hard work and dedication to their training program and emphasizes the value of the career training they have received at CATEC.

Recommendation:

The Director will introduce the students, parents, and employers who are participating in this ceremony.

Item Number: 18-32
